Make-Up Rule for Slide Competition

A member, who for good reason, is unable to enter a monthly competition, thereby losing the opportunity to accumulate points that month, may be allowed to make-up that competition. In order to qualify, a member must have been faced with a sudden or unavoidable absence, such as, a family problem or weather conditions or to have missed the competition due to an honest error. This rule is not to be used in a casual way if entries could have been turned in or have been given to another member to turn in.

The division chairperson will determine if the above qualifications have been met. If so, that member will be allowed to turn in six slides, rather than the usual three, provided the month of missed competition or of make-up is not one with an assigned subject. A member is limited to a one-time per year use of the make-up rule.
